To whom it may concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to highlight some of the exceptional qualities that you will find in Evan Briscall.

I have had the privilege of knowing Evan over the last year. Not only have I experienced his leadership with video productions and marketing promo but I have also seen his steady willingness to serve and get involved in anything that is asked of him.

Evan has a strong work ethic and a desire to succeed. However, his real passion for learning comes from a deep desire to take the ordinary and make it extraordinary by capturing it on video and piecing it together to create something incredible. Evan has always been sensitive to the needs around him and would often sacrifice his own experience to enhance someone else's.

Evan has had the opportunity to participate in a number of projects with our Young Adult group here at Ellerslie Road Baptist Church. He has been our in-house photographer and captured the activities that go on within our church. He also created promo videos for a church-wide project we undertook called Serve Weekend which helped inspire 300 people to get involved and volunteer their time one Saturday to serve the City of Edmonton. Many people expressed that their desire to be involved was because of the excellence that was depicted in the videos and that they thought the event would have a similar caliber. Throughout the Serve Weekend event, Evan went above and beyond by spending the hours and hours that were needed to put together a 5-minute video of the event for our Sunday morning services.

Evan is a person that has always been dependable, is very punctual, and sacrifices to make things happen. Evan makes great decisions and aligns himself to follow his strengths. When in a group setting Evan works well with others and follows directions well.

In my opinion Evan has the perfect balance of care and skills in the area of video editing. He lives his life with a responsibility to give back to the community he is in and the community at large and would be an asset to any company. Of one thing I am certain; I would feel blessed to have Evan assigned do any work for our church in the area of video editing.

Sincerely,

Ben Dewbury
